

Energy Poverty

---

12 December 2019, Prague, Czech Republic
Nábřeží Edvarda Beneše 4, 118 01 Praha 1 – Malá Strana

Office of the Government of the Czech Republic

Moderated by Tomáš Vácha, Czech Technical University in Prague Interpretation will be provided in English and Czech

13:45 – 18:00

Energy Poverty – introduction

Energy poverty – definitions and approaches by Jiří Karásek, Senior consultant, SEVEn

Presentation of the study Energy Poverty in Danube Region by Igor Kytka, Czech Technical University in Prague

Patterns of energy poverty in the Danube Region by Stefan Bouzarovski, Professor, University of Manchester and Chair of the European Union Energy Poverty Observatory

Panel discussion – Energy Poverty policies in Europe and its implications for the Danube Region

Anne Katherina Weidenbach, European Commission, DG ENERGY

Jiří Karásek, Senior consultant, SEVEn

Adéla Denková, Research Fellow, Association for International Affairs Research Center

Hedvika Koďousková, Assistant Professor, International Institute of Political Science, Masaryk University

Igor Kytka, Czech Technical University in Prague

Panel discussion – Best practices on energy poverty

Stefan Bouzarovski, Professor, University of Manchester and Chair of the European Union Energy Poverty Observatory

Marina Varvesi, AISFOR S.r.l., project ASSIST 2GETHER

Cezara Popovici, The European Consumer Organisation and Soňa Libigerová, dTEST, project STEP

Martin Ander, ASHOKA, Call for Projects in Social Innovation to Tackle Energy Poverty

Lena Herrmann, Stromspar-Check